AUBURN SWEEPS GEORGIA SERIES

Wins Both Ends of Double
Bill--Georgia Outclassed
in Every Department of Play.

Auburn, Ala., April 8.—Special.—Auburn won both ends of a double-header from the University of Georgia here today, 9-6, and 8-1, making a clean sweep of the series.

The games were featured by the heavy hitting of the Auburn batters and the sensational fielding of both teams at critical moments, and the effectiveness of the Auburn pitchers despite the chilly weather.

With the thermometer hanging around a point signifying football weather, Price pitched six innings without allowing a hit before easing up, with the game won, and Suggs, the young southpaw, came through the second game without a hit being gleaned off his delivery.

Ducote's Hitting.

Individually, besides the pitchers, the honors for the day rest with Ducote, who annexed two hits in the first game and drove out two home runs in the second, and Griffin, who fielded in superb style, and also clouted three safely.

A sensational catch by Steed and the consistent work of Rawson, the Georgia catcher, were the other features.

Auburn's fierce and timely hitting won the first game, the team scoring three runs in the first inning, added three in the third on an error, two singles and two doubles, two in the sixth on a couple of hits and an error, and brought the total to nine in the seventh by bunting two hits with a hit batsman.

Georgia hit Price hard in the eighth and ninth, but he tightened up and choked off the rally, striking out one pinch hitter and letting the other down on an infield ball.

Georgia started the second game with a score by taking advantage of Auburn's errors, but after that Georgia had no chance to break through Suggs' pitching, backed by sensational support.

Auburn hit McWhorter hard after the first inning, Ducote's hits alone being enough to win the game. The series was remarkable because of the class of ball played by both teams.

THE MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

The Military Training Camps of the United States is an organization formed by the merger in January 1916, of the Students' and the Business Men's organizations which had camps last summer at Plattsburgh, Ludington, Fort Sheridan, and at other places under the direction of the War Department. President Henry Sturgis Drinkler of Lehigh University has been elected Chairman of the Governing Committee of the Association, J. L. Derby, of New York, Treasurer, Grenville Clark, of New York, Secretary, and D. K. Jay, of New York, Executive Secretary. The joint organization will continue to have, from the educational standpoint, the advice of the University President's Advisory Committee, which co-operated in the Students' training camps movement.

Plans for the camps next summer are being worked out by the Association, which has established its main office at 31 Nassau Street, New York, with other branches at Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and other points.

It will be remembered that the first Summer Military Training Camps for Students were instituted in the summer of 1913, and were held in the East at Gettysburg, and in the West at the Presidio of Monterey, California. These were followed by students' camps in the summer of 1914 at Burlington, Vt., Ludington, Mich., Asheville, N. C., and the Presidio of Monterey, Cal., and in the summer of 1915 by students' camps at Plattsburgh, N. Y., Ludington, Mich., and the Presidio of San Francisco, Cal.

In 1915, camps were established for Business Men at various points, the one held at Plattsburgh following the students' camps, being the largest.

During the past autumn committees representing the students, and the business men's organizations, and the Advisory Committee of University Presidents, have been in conference as to the advisability of the formation of a joint organization, with the result that the students' and business men's organizations have been merged, forming The Military Training Camps Association of the United States, to be managed by a Governing Committee composed of representatives from the Advisory Committee of University Presidents, from the Business Men's Camps, held at Plattsburgh, and Fort Sheridan, and on the Pacific Coast, and from the students' camps.

The University Presidents on this Governing Committee are, President

Y.M.C.A. DEPUTATION TEAM

The Auburn Y. M. C. A. Deputation team gave a series of talks in Tuskegee last week-end.

The program was as follows

Friday night — Presbyterian Church.

Saturday night—Baptist Church.
Sunday afternoon — Methodist Church, Union Service.

Those men on the team are:

Sam J. Smith, E. B. Holloway, S. N. Crosby, Glen Liddell, Leo Tsiang, J. H. Turner, Steele Black, J. R. Robertson, J. G. Peterson, E. M. Manning, E. W. Smith, C. E. Newman, E. C. Leach.

Friday morning Sam J. Smith, Steele Black and myself went down to Tuskegee to arrange for the coming of the other members of the team who were to arrive there that evening.

That morning we went out to the high school and talked to Prof. Thompson, the man in charge of the financial and social matters at that end of the line. Then at 2:20 p. m. the boys of the high school were marched into chapel and there we told them what our meetings were to be like and asked them all to come out, after this short meeting we began to look into the matter of getting the rest of the boys from Chehaw to Tuskegee, but after a while all was arranged, thanks to the good work of Prof. Thompson.

Friday afternoon all ten of the boys came as they had said they would do. There were thirteen of us and all big eaters, so we had to be assorted among the good people of the town.

About 3:30 we all gathered at the fair grounds for a baseball game with the boys of the High School. Some came out in uniforms, some in tennis outfits, some in regular "cits" and we sure made a funny looking ball team.

The men on the team were out for fun and we sure got it. We were sorry to see that there was a charge for admission, but since there was a charge we had to make it interesting. We beat them by a score of 16 to 10.

Friday night we talked at the Presbyterian Church on the subject: "Christ's call to men and women of today." Each man talked for about five or six minutes on his own particular phase of this subject. The attendance was good. We were competing with a special picture show and a reception, but even then got close to 150 people out.

Saturday the boys did pretty much as they pleased, of course, we had a meeting place and kept in close touch with each other in this way. Some played tennis, while

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

After the matches played Tuesday six teams in doubles and six men in singles remained undefeated. In doubles Sloan and Rickenbaker have reached the semifinals by winning from Peters and Nesbit in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3; Payne and Boyd also reached the semifinals by defeating Mays and Beuttell in a close match of three sets by the score 6-4, 5-7, 6-3; Tuttle and Duggar won from Tenel and Dean, 5-7, 6-2, 6-4; Donchoo and Hayes won from Burns and Funk, 6-0, 6-0; Withington and Caffey won from McCormick and Sheridan, 3-6, 6-2, 6-3.

The semi-finals in singles Tuttle upset the dope by eliminating Rickenbaker, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3; Sloan won from Tenel in a close match, 6-1, 6-8, 6-2; Lipscomb won from Teigpen, 6-3, 6-2; Mays won from Beuttell, 6-4, 6-3; Browne won from Hudson, 6-3, 7-5. All matches thru the semi-finals will be played this week. Sloan and Rickenbaker will play Payne and Boyd Thursday afternoon in a semi-final match. Tuttle and Duggar will play Donehoo and Hayes and the winners of this match will play the winners of Withington and Caffey vs. Browne and Hudson in the semi-finals this week.

In singles Lipscomb will play Mays in the semi-finals this week; Sloan will play the winner of Browne vs. Dean; the winner of this match will play Tuttle in the semi-finals.

As the tournament draws to a close the matches become more and more closely contested. All of those who have not been eliminated are working hard to get their letter.

GAMMA SIGMA DELTA HONARY AGRICULTURAL FRATERNITY INSTALLS CHAPTER AT AUBURN

Through the efforts of faculty members and interested students a chapter of the Honorary Agricultural Fraternity, Gamma Sigma Delta, has been installed at this Institution.

The purpose of this fraternity is to promote a deeper interest in Scientific Agriculture.

The membership is based on scholarship, morality, student activities and interest in agriculture in general, the members being chosen from the upper two-fifths of the Junior and Senior classes and from the agricultural faculty.

The ideals of this fraternity not only aim to secure a high degree of interest in class work, but also to encourage those virtues which develop leadership and a spirit of service.

NEW FRATERNITY Phi Epsilon Pi

The Tau chapter of the Phi Epsilon Pi Fraternity has lately been installed at Auburn by members of the Georgia Tech., and the University of Georgia chapters. A banquet was given in their honor at the Clement Hotel, Opelika.

This Fraternity is a non-sectarian one, and at present consists of twenty chapters, four of which are located in southern colleges.

WINNING

It takes a little courage.

And a little self control

And some grim determination

If you want to reach a goal.

It takes a deal of striving

And a firm and stern set chin.

No matter what the battle

If you're really going to win.

There's no easy path to glory.

There's no rosy road to fame.

Life, however we might view it.

Is no simple parlor game;

But its prizes call for fighting.

For endurance and for grit.

For a rugged disposition

And a don't-know-when-to quit.

You must take a blow or give one.

You must risk or you must lose.

And expect that in the struggle

You will suffer from a bruise,

But you mustn't wince or falter.

If a fight you once begin.

Be a man and face the battle—

That's the only way to win.

AUBURN, ALA., APRIL 15, 1916.

Next week's paper will give a large amount of space to the Birth of a Nation which will be here on the first of May. This will be done mainly for the purpose of letting those who do not know of the particulars have an opportunity of reading some of the articles which have appeared since its production.

The opportunity to see this play here in Auburn is not to be overlooked as many of us will not have another in some time.

While the price may be thought to be high yet we must consider the fact that the Griffith Company will not allow the play to be presented at a cheaper price and those who have seen the play will readily say that it is well worth both time and money.

"IT CAN BE DONE."

Somebody said it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one
Who wouldn't say so till he had tried.

So he buckled right in with a trace of a grin
On his face, if he worried he hid
it,
He started to sing, as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did
it.

There are thousands to tell you "it cannot be done"
There are thousands to prophesy
failure
There are thousands to point out to you, one by one
The dangers that wait to assail
you.

But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Then take off your coat and go to
it;
Just start in to sing as you tackle
the thing
That "cannot be done" and you'll do it.

EXTRACT FROM DONAHUE'S AD- DRESS TO Y.M.C.A.

There is another form of this that I have left until the last because it is a form that more directly affects us, especially at certain seasons, than any other. It is all the more dangerous because it very often takes the form of an apparently patriotic act, of showing that you have the right spirit, of showing that you are a good sport, of showing that you are behind the team, and so on. Especially in the fall when we have our rallies and everything, it is at its highest tension, and when the newspapers are full of dope, and we hear how the betting odds are in Atlanta or Birmingham. This is the time of the greatest danger, a time when many are started on the gambling path. Gambling is a vice of such nature that it is almost impossible to quit. When the team wins it is such an easy and a pleasant way of getting money, that you want to do it again. If you lose the result will be the same, you want to get back what you lost. The added pleasure of getting something away from, or getting even with your opponents gives a zest that makes it all the more dangerous. This is regarding simply the gambling side of it. There is another mistaken idea that a student that bets is doing it in any way to support his team or is by so doing showing in any way his college spirit. There may be a few others that are bullied into betting on the ground of a lack of grit, or a "yellow streak," or that they are talking one way, or believe something else. These would show far more grit, and far more backbone by not allowing themselves to be bullied into doing such thing. The words "put up, or shut up" are very often a potent argument for betting, especially when thrown at someone with a weak or undeveloped backbone. Finally does the bettor think he is supporting his team. He most assuredly is not. Outside of the few that I have mentioned, a student or anyone else betting is doing it simply and solely to win money. He is deserting his team. His interest in the game is financial. He puts away his college spirit and puts in its stead monetary gain. He folds up his colors and displays the dollar flag. There is no such thing as a good sport when the better of money is concerned. A good sport may lose gracefully when finances are not involved, but when he is financially involved, he may say what he pleases, but if he loses there is a wrangling left; a sense of financial loss that overcomes the fact that the team may have fought a fight deserving of the highest praise. There is one common tendency of all losers in betting and that is to throw blame on somebody. His judgment is far more biased than it would be if he had not lost his money. With our spirit here and the confidence in our teams, we are largely able as yet to ignore the financial loss, but a continuance of betting will bring this disrupting feature into the present splendid unity and spirit of our college life.

The old gentleman took a well-worn purse from his pocket, opened it, and laid a nickel on the counter. "I said seventy-five cents," yelled the druggist. "Well," said the old man, "didn't I give you the five cents?" "Dog-gone you!" said the druggist as he swept the nickel into the cash drawer. "I made two cents on you anyway."

"Is my wife forward?" asked the passenger on the limited. "She wasn't to me, sir," answered the conductor politely.—Baltimore and Ohio Employees' Magazine.

Railroad Attorney—"You are sure it was our flier that killed your mule? What makes you so positive?" Witness—"He done licked every other train on the road."—Baltimore Trolley News.

"Tinker has placed an old railroad sign, 'Stop, look, and listen!' at the entrance to his driveway." "What's the idea?" "His wife is running the touring car."

Pat boarded the train and took a seat; there was a smile of triumph upon his face. "What's the matter with you?" asked his friend. Pat's countenance beamed satisfaction. "Sure I've been riding on this road for tin years, and I've got the best of the company for once in me life." "How's that?" "I've just bought meself a return ticket, an'," lowering his voice to a whisper, "I ain't comin' back."—Railroad Men.

A woman entered a railway train crowded with winter tourists and happened to take a seat in front of a newly married couple. She was hardly seated before they began making remarks about her, which some of the passengers must have heard. Her last year's bonnet and cloak were fully criticised with more or less gigling on the bride's part, and there is no telling what might have come next if the woman had not put a sudden stop to the conversation by a bit of clever feminine strategy. She turned her head, noticed that the bride was considerably older than the bridegroom, and, in the smoothest of tones, said: "Madam, will you please have your son remove his feet from the back of my chair?"—Ex.

"Lunatics frequently return amusing answers," says the superintendent of a great insane asylum. "One day a keeper was out walking with a number of harmless inmates, and the party met a pedestrian not far from the railway tracks. With a nod toward the tracks, the traveler asked one of the lunatics: "Where does this railway go to?" "The lunatic surveyed him scornfully for a moment and then replied "Nowhere. We keep it here to run trains on." Youth's Companion.

Johnnie aged eight, had been asked by his mother to go and talk to his grandfather, who was sick, and see if he couldn't cheer him up, and this is what Johnnie said to him: Grandpa, wouldn't you like to have soldiers at your funeral?

others walked or rode out to the Institute to look around. However, no student or bunch of students had anything at all to do with the work of the negroes.

After dinner Saturday we met and canvassed the town inviting people to come out to the meetings, and this canvas showed fine results. Saturday night we had a much larger crowd out to hear Leo Tsiang talk about his conversion from Confucianism to Christianity and about China. He took up the whole time Saturday night and held the attention of even the youngest child out.

Sunday morning we went to our respective churches and Sunday Schools.

Sunday afternoon we held a meeting for boys and young men in the high school auditorium. Here we talked to the boys about gambling, swearing, smoking, and talked to them just as all boys should be talked to at that age. We did not try any lecture work—no—we just talked and talked plainly. The boys seemed to enjoy them very much and especially the experiments with which we illustrated our talks.

Sunday night at Union Service in the Methodist Church we all talked on "Why I am a Christian" and told of the good that we had got out of being Christians, even if we are not the best of Christians. The church was filled with men, women, and boys.

On every night the boys of the high school and public school sat in a body, and they came out in full strength. Only one night was any reported absent and then only three boys out of about forty or fifty.

I can truthfully state for the whole team that we were benefitted by our trip and hope we accomplished good for the hospitable little city of Tuskegee.

The Advisory Committee of University Presidents on the Students' Camps of which the above eight Presidents are members is composed of President Hibben of Princeton, Chairman, President Lowell of Harvard, President Hadley of Yale, President Finley of the University of the State of New York, President Hutchins of the University of Michigan, Superintendent E. W. Nichols of the Virginia Military Institute, President Wheeler of the University of California, President Schurman of Cornell University, President James of the University of Illinois, Chancellor Kirkland of Vanderbilt, President Humphreys of the Stevens Institute of Technology, President Garfield of Williams College, President Denny of the University of Alabama, and President Drinker of Lehigh University, Secretary.

The Training Camps Association has established a permanent office at 31 Nassau Street, New York, and a large clerical force is now card-cataloging the names of all who attended the business men's camps and the students' camps heretofore held, and the names of all University and College alumni and students throughout the country so far as they can be obtained from college catalogs and alumni registers, and the names of all others who may apply for enrollment in the camps for next summer, including students in the graduating classes of high schools, and other schools rated as such, and the graduates of the same. When these catalogs are completed, full information will be sent out to all persons interested as to the camps to be held next summer with enrollment blanks to be signed by those desiring to attend. The present membership of the Association composed of all men who have attended these camps for the last three summers, numbers about 4100 men, and the indications are that the enrollment for the coming summer will run up into many thousands.

The camps are essentially democratic and are open to all applicants of good moral character, physically qualified.

Inquiries should be addressed to The Military Training Camps Association, 31 Nassau Street, New York.

Local Talent to Hold Forth

On Thursday, April 20, at 8 p. m. in the Grammar School Auditorium will be given the play Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch. This play is being given under the direction of Mrs. W. B. Frazer who will take the leading part. This play was given several years ago, and was so successful that it has been decided to repeat it.

Any one who has never heard Mrs. Frazer in her humorous stories should be sure to attend this as she will be at her best in the character that she is to depict. Mrs. Frazer is widely known for her humorous recitations and negro dialect stories.

The show will start promptly at 8 o'clock, and the admission will be two bits or one quarter of a dollar.

A BAD INVESTMENT.

May I ask the cause of all this excitement? said the stranger.

"Certainly," replied the countryman. "We're celebrating the birthday of the oldest inhabitant. She's one hundred and one today."

"Indeed! And may I ask who is that little man with the dreadfully sad face, walking by the old lady's side?"

Oh, that's her son-in-law. He's been keeping up the payments of her life insurance policy for the last thirty years."

A BUSY HUSBAND.

A colored mammy worked for many years for a rich lady. The time came when she married. Her mistress met her a few weeks after.

Well Dinah, have you a good husband?

Good! said Dinah. Ah should say so; he am sweeter dan honey!

Is he a good provider? asked the lady.

A good provider? said Dinah. Ah spects he is! We was only married two weeks when he got me seben new wash places.
